This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

+ Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.
+ Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
+ Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
+ Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

About Google Book Search

Google's mission is to organize the world's information and to make it universally accessible and useful. Google Book Search helps readers discover the world's books while helping authors and publishers reach new audiences. PREFACE.

In this, the third volume, are given Marriage Registers for seven Nottinghamshire parishes, and the Chapelry of Elston, all in the southern part of Newark Wapentake, as well as the interesting entry of the marriage in the Chapel of Newark Castle on p. 89, a photographic facsimile of which is given as a frontispiece to the volume.

The Editors have to acknowledge the help of Mr. G. Allen Ross, who kindly copied the Coddington Registers, and of Mr. J. E. K. Cutts, who supplied the transcript of Cotham; for the other parishes Mr. T. M. Blagg is responsible.

Thanks also are due to the parish clergy for leave to print the various registers. Their names are mentioned under the several parishes. As the remarks made in the prefaces of Vols. I and II, as to the spelling of names, method of dating, index, etc., apply equally to the present case, it is not necessary here to repeat them.

The Editors desire to impress upon the reader the fact that it is only volunteer assistance which renders the issue of these Registers possible. The Marriage Registers of nearly every parish in Notts, south of the Trent, have been copied, and some few on the north side of the river, but further aid in North Notts is greatly required. Offers of help will be gladly welcomed.

The remainder of Newark Wapentake will be printed at an early date, but the next volume will be devoted to the south part of Rushcliffe Wapentake, as the manuscript of that part of the county is in the more advanced stage.

Marriages at Balderton,

1538 to 1812.

NOTE.—This fine Register begins in 1538, and is very perfect and legible. In fact the only portions missing are Burials for 1538, Marriages for 1539, the entries for 1544-6 and 1579-80, and some Baptisms in 1686, and the entries from 1550 to 1567 inclusive, a period of eighteen years, all the records remaining of which are the Baptisms for 1550 and part of the Burials for 1557. Throughout the times of the Great Rebellion and Cromwell's Usurpation the Registers are exceptionally complete. The credit for this is due to Thomas Wigglesworth, who was appointed Parish Registrar during the Commonwealth, and on his death, early in 1657, was succeeded in these duties by William Wigglesworth. In 1604 the plague raged here with exceptional virulence, no fewer than 153 Burials occurring between August 1603 and March 1605; while again in 1646 the mortality was quite as great, 130 Burials taking place within a period of twelve months.

The parishes of Balderton and Farndon anciently formed one Prebend of the Cathedral of Lincoln, and were served by one vicar. The Vicarage was formed and the endowment regulated in 1318 by William, Archbishop of York, and a copy of the deed is kept in Balderton Parish Chest.

One result of the union of these parishes is that many of the marriages at Balderton between 1680 and 1730 are entered in Farndon Registers. Except for these fifty years the registers of the two parishes appear to have been separately kept. One volume of Farndon registers, covering the period 1695-1718, is deposited at Balderton, having apparently never been returned to Farndon when the parishes were separated. The Marriages entered in it will be found under "Farndon" in this volume. The parish chest of Balderton also contains a deed relating to the enclosure of common lands in the parish, dated 1727, and other documents.

The first three volumes of the Registers may be described as follows:—

Volume I consists of 122 leaves of parchment, measuring 15 inches by 5½, bound in rough calf, and containing entries of Baptisms and Marriages from 1538 to 1743, and of Burials from 1539 to 1744.

Digitized by Google

Volume II consists of 72 leaves of parchment (many of them blank), measuring 16¼ inches by 6 inches, and containing entries of Baptisms and Burials from 1744 to 1812, and Marriages from 1744 to 1766, those after 1754 being duplicates of the entries in Volume III.

Volume III is the usual quarto paper volume in parchment boards, and contains Banns and Marriages from 1754 to 1810.

These Marriages have been transcribed by Mr. T. M. Blagg, and they are now printed under his supervision by permission of the Rev. J. Farmer, vicar of Balderton.

Marriages at Barnby-in-le-Willows,

1593 to 1812.

NOTE.—The earlier registers of Barnby-in-le-Willows are contained in five volumes, which may be collated as follows:—

Volume I consists of 26 leaves of parchment measuring 13 inches by 6¼. On the first page is a copy of a letter from one Robert Jaye, relating to a charity payable to the poor of Barnby. Pages 2 and 3 contain entries from 1654 to 1657, evidently written on what were once blank pages when the end of the volume had been reached and the book would hold no more. The Register itself begins in 1593 on page 4, and the whole of this first volume contains entries of Baptisms and Burials from 1593 to 1658, and of Marriages from 1593 to 1655.

Volume II consists of ten leaves of parchment, measuring 14 inches by 6½. It is stitched, by way of binding, into a fragment of an ancient vellum manuscript, with painted initial letters, which appears to be part of a 14th century Treatise on Canon Law on the subject of Deaconesses. It contains entries of Baptisms and Burials from 1660 to 1718, and of Marriages from 1661 to 1717.

Volume III consists of 16 leaves of parchment, measuring 13½ inches by 7¼, stitched into a parchment cover. It contains entries of Baptisms from 1719 to 1790, Burials 1719 to 1785, and Marriages from 1719 to 1751.

Volume IV is a paper book in parchment covers, containing entries of Burials, with affidavits, from 1678 to 1734.

Volume V is a paper book, bound in rough calf, containing Marriages from 1754—1812.

These Marriages have been extracted by Mr. G. A. Ross, of Coddington, and are now printed under his supervision, by permission of the Rev. Wm. de la Fontaine, M.A., Vicar of Barnby.

Marriages at Coddington,

1676 to 1813.

NOTE.—Although the Parliamentary Return of 1831 states that Coddington Registers date from 1563, the earliest now existing do not begin until 1676, and the first part of the first volume, viz., from 1676 to 1688 occurs in duplicate, as the following memoran dum, written on a half leaf, explains—

"MEMORANDUM—the four leaves following are a transcript of the Register of Codington, in the County of Nottingham, from the 19th day of August in the year 1676 to the 10th day of February in the year 1688, in wch the errors of spelling in the Original are here corrected, and whereas in the Original in the marriages the maiden names and widow names of the wives are for the most part omitted; and in the baptisms of children the mothers names in many places are not expressed; as also in the burials; these defects are here supplyed as much as possible either from my certain knowledge or from the testimony of ancient and credible witnesses dwelling in the town of Codington, notwithstanding it is convenient for all persons concerned to have recourse to the Original as much as may be; but when it is so imperfect yt they cannot be informed by it, then I hope this transcript may be serviceable [to them]."

MARGINAL NOTE.—"There are also some things superfluous in the Original which are omitted in the transcript."

The present Registers previous to 1812 are contained in five volumes, which may be collated as follows:—

Volume I consists of 30 leaves of parchment and two of paper, measuring 15½ in. by 6¼in., and contains entries of Baptisms from 1676 to 1739, Burials from 1679 to 1754, Marriages from 1676 to 1753.

Volume II consists of 10 leaves of parchment, measuring 16 in. by 12¼ in., and contains entries of Baptisms from 1740 to 1779, Burials from 1754 to 1781.

Volume III consists of 22 leaves of parchment, measuring 13 in. by 8¼ in., and contains entries of Baptisms from 1780 to 1812, Burials from 1781 to 1812.

Volume IV is of quarto size, with paper leaves, and contains entries of Marriages from 1754 to 1782.

Volume V is similar to Volume IV, and contains entries of Marriages from 1783 to 1813.

These Marriages have been transcribed by Mr. G. A. Ross, of Coddington, and are now printed under his supervision, by permission of the Rev. C. Penswick Smith, vicar of the parish.

1587 to 1812.

NOTE.—The first Register consists of 29 leaves, varying in size from 9½in. by 6in. to 11in. by 9in. Several leaves are torn and stitched. The Register is brown and dirty with damp and neglect, and in some parts the entries are much faded, and is in a worse condition than any Register in the neighbourhood. A former Incumbent has treated many of the earliest entries with some liquid to make them more legible; this has left a brown mark across the pages, through which the entries are mostly readable, but whether this treatment has made them more legible than they were before cannot be determined. The earliest entries are bound upside down to the rest, and the earliest entry begins at the twelfth leaf, as the book is now bound. There are remnants of covers left; they are cut as if the covers had been cut away in pieces for some use. A page before the earliest entry has been cut away, leaving only the first portion of a few entries too faded and worn to be read. The Baptisms, Burials and Marriages in this book all commence in 1587.

The second Volume contains Baptisms 1759 to 1810, and Burials 1759 to 1811, but no Marriages.

Volume III consists of many paper leaves, ruled red, in parchment-covered boards. It is 9½in. by 7½in. The entries are on the first 19 leaves only, and consist of Banns and Marriages.

These Marriages were extracted by Mr. J. E. K. Cutts, F.R.I.B.A., and have been collated with the originals by Mr. Tho. M. Blagg, by permission of the Rev. J. H. R. Wood, Vicar of Thorpe and Cotham.

Marriages at East Stoke,

1538 to 1812.

NOTE.—Portions of the town of Newark, such as the Castle, the Mills, the "Tolnies," etc., are situate in this parish, and the Baptisms, Marriages, and Burials, of their residents are recorded in the earlier Registers of East Stoke.

The greatest peculiarity about the Parish Registers is that, like those of the adjoining parish of Thorpe, they are on paper. Though the first part of Vol. I is evidently a transcript of an earlier volume, it is made upon paper instead of parchment, as ordered by the act of Queen Elizabeth, and throughout the 17th century also the Registers of this parish were continued to be kept in paper books. The earlier Registers of Stoke are as follows:—

Vol. I. A paper book in parchment covers. It contains entries of Baptisms from 1538 to 1672, Burials 1559 to 1675, and Marriages from 1559 to 1685. "The plague" visited the parish in 1646 with extraordinary virulence, upwards of 160 of the Burials in that year being marked with a cross to indicate that those persons were victims of the pestilence; a note in the volume saying—"there dyed in the towne of Stoke, 1646, eightscore and one, whereof of the plague seven score and nineteene." This was the year in which Newark surrendered to the Scotch Army, and the plague was rampant in the town (see Brown's Annals of Newark, pp. 164-8) and appears to have made great work in the surrounding villages (see note to "Balderton"). On page 11 of this book occurs the interesting entry which is given in facsimile as a frontispiece to this volume. The bottom portion of all the leaves throughout the first half of this book have been much eaten by mice and otherwise damaged, causing the loss of a great number of entries.

Vol. II is a paper book in parchment covers, the leaves measuring 15 by 5¾ inches. It contains entries of Baptisms and Burials from 1679 to 1798, and of Marriages from 1686 to 1753.

Vol. III consists of Marriages from 1755 to 1805.

Vol. IV contains Marriages from 1806 to 1812.

Vol. V is headed, "A copy of the Register Book taken in the year 1814 by William Attenburrow, Surveyor." It contains a copy of the Baptisms and Burials in Vol. II, i.e., from 1679 to 1798, and also has the original entries of those ceremonies from 1798 to 1812.

These Marriages have been transcribed by Mr. T. M. Blagg, and are now printed under his supervision by permission of the Rev. A. W. Bailey, vicar of the parish.

NOTE.—Newark Castle, with certain lands near it, being situate in the parish of East Stoke, this entry occurs on p. 11 of the registers of that place. We know that in the 12th century the chapel in Newark Castle was dedicated to the Apostles Philip and James, for King Henry II confirmed the grant of it by Robert, Bishop of Lincoln, to the priory of St. Katherine at Lincoln. In all probability this was the same chapel.

The interesting marriage entry, on the preceding page, which is printed verbatim from the original, has been reproduced in photographic facsimile as a frontispiece to this present volume.

The Castle of Newark was the property of the Crown, and, as such, was, during the 16th and 17th centuries leased as a residence to various successive families. Sir Francis Leeke, of Sutton Scarsdale, held it by a 21 years' lease from 25 June 1560, and on expiration of this lease it was (14 Feb. 1581) granted to the Earl of Rutland, the Countess, his wife, and Elizabeth her daughter, for the term of their three lives. Hence the reason for Elizabeth's marriage taking place in the Castle Chapel. On 27 May 1591, Queen Elizabeth granted to William Cecil, afterwards 3rd Lord Burleigh and 2nd Earl of Exeter, Elizabeth, Lady Roos, his wife, and William Cecil their son, for terms of their lives and the longest living of them successively, the "Castle Close," of Newark, in the parish of Stoke, together with other lands. On the 18th of the same month the Queen had granted the fishing of Besthorpe to Isabel, Countess of Rutland, William, afterwards 3rd Lord Burleigh, and William Lord Roos, his son, on the same terms; and on the 19th Nov. in the same year she leased to the same persons and for the same period certain tenements in Newark. On the 11th July 1620 all the persons mentioned in the above leases, with the exception of William, Lord Burleigh, afterwards 2nd Earl of Exeter, being dead, the Castle of Newark, together with the fishing of Besthorpe, the Manor of Balderton, and all the tenements at Newark, etc., held by him were granted by Prince Charles (to whom they had been given by King James) to Sir Thomas Howard and his sons Thomas and Charles, on a lease of 90 years from the death of the said William, Lord Burleigh (afterwards 2nd Earl of Exeter).

The annexed pedigree will better fix the personalities of the individuals concerned in this Marriage.

Samuel Fleming, the officiating priest, was Rector of Bottesford from 1581 to 1620. He was a great benefactor to the parish, founding an almshouse and building a bridge near the churchyard, which still remains.

* Probably the bridesmaid whose signature occurs as a witness at her cousin's wedding three months before her death.

† On his death, without issue, in 1618, the ancient Barony of Roos returned to the Rutland family in the person of Francis, the 6th Earl.

Marriages in Elston Chapel,

1584 to 1814.

NOTE.—Certain lands and houses within the lordship of Elston, many of them quite detached and isolated pieces of ground, formerly constituted "the Chapelry of Elston in the Parish of East Stoke." For the convenience of the inhabitants of these houses an old stone chapel stands in a grass field at the north-east angle of Elston village. Tradition says that at one time it stood at Stoke, near the spot now occupied by the Vicarage there, and this appears to be borne out by the occurrence of fragments of mouldings and carved stone in the wall of the present fabric, which were apparently incorporated in the structure when the walls were re-built. Further, the date 1577 occurs on a stone over the east window, and again inside the chapel on the north wall, near by the pulpit, and as this date is necessarily something like 400 years later than the fine twelfth century doorway, with its Norman arch and zigzag moulding, it is very probably the date at which the Chapel was removed and rebuilt. There are fragments of stained glass in the upper panes of several of the windows, but none of it armorial, so far as the writer could distinguish. There is a bell-cote in the western gable containing one bell, plain and uninscribed; a toothless-looking gap shows where a second hung, but the villagers say that it was cracked, and so sold by the Chapel-wardens for old metal. The Fillingham family of Syerston own some land in the parish, for which they are supposed to keep the chancel of the Chapel in repair, and a square pew opposite the pulpit is assigned to them. A board on the choir-loft commemorates a charity left by a Sumner, which is still administered by the Rector of Elston and the two Chapel-wardens. Services were formerly held here by the Vicars of Stoke, in whose parish the Chapelry was situate, but about 1870 arrangements were made by which it was amalgamated with the parish of Elston, and the glebe assigned to the Rector of All Saints, and though services were held there for a little while, they have been long discontinued and the ancient building is now shut up. Chapel-wardens are still appointed, and the rent derived from the field in which the building stands more than suffices to keep it weather-tight and clean. The burials entered in its Registers took place at Stoke, except when the churchyard of Elston is particularly specified. The following is a description of the Chapel Registers:—

Vol. I apparently consists of several books bound together in one cover. Several of the parts are loose. The whole volume has 52 leaves of parchment, measuring from 8½in. by 6½in. to 10¼in. by 7in. It contains entries of Baptisms and Marriages from 1584 to 1722, and Burials from 1585 to 1722. The entries previous to 1630 are in Latin.

Vol. II consists of 36 leaves of parchment, measuring 14½in. by 6½in., in an old smooth calf binding. It contains entries of Baptisms from 1722 to 1814, Marriages 1722 to 1753, and Burials from 1722 to 1725, and two Burials in 1727, viz., Anthony Footit, parish clerk, on April 26, and Mrs. Anne Lindsay, widow, on Feb. 24, (1727-8), and one in 1741, that of Elizabeth, dau. of Thomas and Elizabeth Sumner on Dec. 20th. As the writer was unable to hear anything of a volume containing burials from the chapel parish from 1725 to 1812, it is possible that, as the burials took place at Stoke, they are entered in the registers of that place. From 1777 to 1798 the grandparents of the children baptized on both the father's and mother's side, with their occupations and places of residence, are entered, whenever known, and this commendable practice was followed at Syerston, East Stoke and Coddington during the same period—all these livings being held by one man.

Vol. III is a quarto book in parchment boards containing Marriages from 1755 to 1814.

Vols. I and II are kept by the Rector of All Saints, Elston, the Rev. J. D. Ouvry; but Vol. III remains in the custody of the Vicar of Stoke, the Rev. A. W. Bailey, and it is to these gentlemen that we are indebted for permission to transcribe the Marriages.

Marriages at Elston,

NOTE.—The first four Volumes of Elston Registers are as follows:—

VOL. I is in a parchment cover and consists of, first, 26 leaves of parchment, then a leaf of paper fastened in with a pin and containing Burials for 1680-6, then four more leaves of parchment, followed by 12 leaves of paper of a shorter length (the last two blank), and, lastly, two more leaves of parchment, the one blank, the other bearing a Memorandum relating to the enlargement of the Rectory garden in 1718.

The various classes of entries are kept separate, pp. 1-32 containing Baptisms from 1572 to 1687, pp. 33-54 Burials from 1572 to 1686, and pp. 55-62 Marriages from 1573-1688. The paper leaves at the end contain mixed entries from 1695-1719. The entries are in English except for a short period between 1609 and 1636, when Latin is used. There is a Memorandum, dated 20 June 1654, appointing John Elston to be Parish Registrar of Elston during the Commonwealth, in accordance with the then Act of Parliament.

The family of Elston, taking their name from the place, have been here from the earliest times, and are still represented in the village. The earlier references to them describe them as "yeomen", though more latterly they are farmers or cottagers. There is a will of Hugh Elstone of Elstone, at York, dated 1506.

Vol. II consists of 15 leaves of parchment measuring 14½ by 6¼ inches, in a parchment cover, and contains entries of Baptisms 1696-1766, Marriages 1720-1754, and Burials 1695-1766, all kept separately, while on the inside of the front cover are copied the Marriages "from the old paper Register", being those for the years 1702-1718. At the bottom of this is written, "Memorandum—that till November ye 16, 1719, the Register has been kept by ye Clark". The entries of Baptisms and Burials in this Volume, previous to 1719, have also been copied from "the old paper Register", by which is meant the 12 leaves measuring 8 by 6 inches bound at the end of Vol. I.

Vol. III is a quarto paper book in parchment boards, containing Marriages from 1754-1811.

Vol. IV is a folio book of parchment, bound in parchment boards, and containing entries of Baptisms and Burials from 1767-1812. Many of its leaves are unused.

These Marriages have been transcribed by Mr. T. M. Blagg, and are now printed under his supervision by permission of the Rev. J. D. Ouvry, Rector of the Parish.

Marriages at Farndon,

1559-1812.

NOTE:—The earlier Registers of Farndon are contained in four volumes.

Vol. I consists of 58 parchment leaves, measuring 13½ by 5 inches, in a tattered parchment cover. On the last leaf is a Terrier of the Glebe, dated 1684, and particulars of the Tithe dues. The penultimate leaf is blank. This volume contains entries of Baptisms from 1559 to 1682, and of Marriages and Burials from 1559 to 1680. Many entries for the years 1667-69 are written in duplicate in a small and faded hand on the last leaf of the book. George Arnold was appointed "Parish Register" in 1655 under the Commonwealth Act, and his writing is particularly careful and legible. The sixteenth century portion of this volume is, of course, a transcript of an older book, no longer extant.

Vol. II is kept at Balderton Church, the two parishes having been formerly one cure. It is a small quarto volume of paper, bound in parchment, and has formerly been the shop account book of a mercer or draper, in the middle of the 17th century. This volume was sold along with some other effects of a late vicar of Balderton, but has been restored by its purchaser to the custody of the present vicar, the Rev. J. Farmer, by whose courtesy the Marriages have been extracted from it. It contains entries of Baptisms, Marriages and Burials from 1695 to 1718, and a complete verbatim transcript of the whole was made and published by Mr. T. M. Blagg in 1899, 48 copies being printed, of which two were deposited in the Church chests of Balderton and Farndon respectively.

Vol. III is a folio book of 38 parchment leaves (one blank) bound in rough calf, lettered on the side "FARRINGTON REDGISTER 1718." It contains Baptisms and Burials from 1719 to 1812, and Marriages from 1719 to 1765. It also has a detailed Terrier of the Glebe and Tithes of Farndon and Balderton in 1748.

Vol. IV contains Marriages from 1754 to 1812, those entries between 1754 and 1765 being also entered in duplicate in Vol. III.

These Marriages have been extracted by Mr. T. M. Blagg, and are now printed under his supervision by permission of the Rev. A. L. Sparkes, the vicar of Farndon.
